

Andrew E. Humann

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

- Over 27 years in the U.S. Army, including 22 years in Special Forces
- Two years as the Team Sergeant of a Special Forces Mobility Team
- Over three years as an assault team member in a Combatant Commander's In-extremis Force (CIF) unit specializing in Close Quarters Combat (CQC)
- Five combat tours in Iraq and Afghanistan, as well as contingency missions in Bosnia, Kosovo, Colombia, Sierra Leone, Liberia and Gabon
- Extensive travels include visiting and working in over 35 countries on six continents
- Top Secret (TS/SCI) security clearance granted by the U.S. Government in March 2008
- Over 14 years as a Special Operations Medical Sergeant
- Military and civilian qualified Dive Medical Technician
- Working knowledge of the German language
- Over seven years as a contractor working with and teaching members of the military Special Operations and civilian law enforcement communities

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Contractor

January 2010 – Current

Colorado Springs, Colorado

- Currently working as the Team Leader/Medic for a non-profit company searching for and recovering WW2 MIA remains in Europe and the Central Pacific
- Taught marksmanship, concealed pistol carry techniques, combatives, trauma medicine and foreign and domestic weapons operation and employment to numerous Special Operations and Law Enforcement units as an assistant instructor for a Lone Operator Course
- Served as an assault team member and medic for a five man Maritime Security Team sailing on cargo ships in high risk waters off of Africa, India and the Middle East
- Taught Close Quarter Combat (CQB) shooting skills to military units preparing for deployments to Operations Enduring Freedom and Iraqi Freedom
- Served as a member of a security detail for an event hosting the governor of Colorado
- Instructed U.S. Air Force Security Forces guarding intercontinental nuclear missiles in Close Quarters Combat, Infantry Tactics and Tactical Trauma Care techniques
- Taught the Weapons and Medial portions of a Special Forces Qualification Course to an eastern European Special Operations unit
- Taught basic and advanced Tactical Trauma Care to U.S. Army, U.S. Air Force and U.S. Marine Corps medical and non-medical personnel
- Provided medical coverage for multiple Tactical Driving and Home Made Explosives courses

- Acted as a Role Player for several Unconventional Warfare Exercises at the U.S. Army's Joint Readiness Training Center (JRTC)
- Served as a Cat III Role Player and Surveillance Team Member for multiple U.S. Army Special Forces ASOT courses

Special Forces Operations Sergeant

September 2006 – September 2009

U.S. Army, Stuttgart, Germany

- Working as a Special Forces Team Sergeant, planned and led numerous successful Special Operations missions during Operation Enduring Freedom
- Trained, supervised, evaluated and professionally developed nine noncommissioned officers as the senior enlisted member of a U.S. Army Special Forces A Team
- Served as the liaison officer between a Special Forces Battalion and the U.S. Special Operations Command, Europe

Special Operations Medical Sergeant

November 2004 – August 2006

U.S. Army, Fort Bragg, North Carolina

- Provided health care to soldiers and host nation civilians in austere conditions as the medical sergeant on a U.S. Army Civil Affairs Team
- Interacted with the Afghan military, government officials and civilians in order to provide infrastructure improvements in rural areas
- Implemented an inoculation program to vaccinate herds of sheep and goats
- Enhanced educational opportunities in impoverished areas by improving structures and providing supplies to schools

Special Operations Medical Sergeant

November 1999 – October 2004

U.S. Army, Fort Carson, Colorado

- Served as an assault team member with a Combatant Commander's In-extremis Force (CIF) unit on over 20 successful urban combat missions in Baghdad and Najaf, Iraq
- Primary instructor for a Special Forces Advanced Urban Combat (SFAUC) course that trained over 60 Special Operations soldiers
- Provided medical coverage on multiple combat missions during Operation Iraqi Freedom I and II and Operation Enduring Freedom I (Afghanistan)
- Supervised a clinic at Baghdad International Airport that provided medical care to over 800 coalition members
- Taught Tactical Combat Casualty Care (TCCC) to non medical personnel, preparing over 100 soldiers for deployment to war zones
- Served as an assault team member with the first Combatant Commander's In-extremis Force (CIF) to deploy to Afghanistan
- Performed intelligence gathering activities in the former Yugoslavia province of Kosovo
- Served on the committee tasked to test and select the Special Operations Combat Assault Rifle (SCAR)

Special Operations Medical Sergeant

September 1995 – October 1999

U.S. Army, Stuttgart, Germany

- Served more than three years as an assault team member of the Eucom Combatant Commander's In-extremis Force (CIF), specializing in Close Quarter Combat (CQB)
- Participated with the U.S. and multiple European National Force units in high profile joint Close Quarter Combat exercises

- Taught small arms shooting skills to soldiers preparing to attend the U.S. Army Special Warfare Center 's Close Quarters Combat course
- Served as a member of a Personal Security Detail (PSD) escorting United States Government dignitaries in the former Republic of Yugoslavia
- Trained members of an eastern European military in Personal Security Detail (PSD) techniques
- Provided combat support and medical care for two Non Combatant Evacuation Operations in Liberia/Sierra Leone and Gabon
- Among the first U.S. troops to enter Bosnia for peace keeping operations
- Worked with other government agencies on classified missions in eastern Europe

Special Operations Medical Sergeant

August 1994 – August 1995

U.S. Army, Fort Carson, Colorado

Special Operations Medical Sergeant

October 1991 – June 1994

20th Special Forces Group

Special Operations Weapons Sergeant

February 1988 – October 1991

20th Special Forces Group

EDUCATION

- Bachelor of Science, Physics/Mathematics
Georgia State University, Atlanta, Georgia 1992
- German language studies
University of Maryland, College Park, Maryland 1996 – 1997

RELEVANT TRAINING

- Survival, Evasion, Resistance and Escape (SERE) Course, U.S. Army, Fort Bragg, North Carolina, 2006
- Individual Terrorism Awareness Course, U.S. Army, Fort Bragg, North Carolina, 2006
- Military Dive Medical Technician Course, U.S. Army, Key West, Florida, 2003
- Long Range Maritime Operations Course, Naval Special Warfare Center, Coronado, California, 2001
- Special Forces Advanced Reconnaissance, Target Analysis and Exploitation Techniques Course, U.S. Army, Fort Bragg, North Carolina, 1996
- Special Forces Operations and Intelligence Sergeant Course, U.S. Army, Fort Bragg, North Carolina, 1994
- Military Free Fall Parachutist Course, U.S. Army, Fort Bragg, North Carolina, 1993
- Special Forces Medical Sergeant Course, U.S. Army, Fort Sam Houston, Texas and Fort Bragg, North Carolina, 1991
- Mountain Warfare School, ARNG, Jericho, Vermont, 1988
- Special Forces Weapons Sergeant Course, U.S. Army, Fort Bragg, North Carolina, 1988
- Air Assault Course, U.S. Army, Fort Campbell, Kentucky, 1984
- Pathfinder Course, U.S. Army, Fort Benning, Georgia, 1984
- Airborne Course, U.S. Army, Fort Benning, Georgia, 1982

- Individual Infantry Training, U.S. Army, Fort Benning, Georgia, 1982

AWARDS

- Bronze Star with V device (Valor), 2005
- Bronze Star (2), 2005 and 2008
- Meritorious Service Medal, 1999