

Daniel Jacobs

Objective To obtain a full-time position as Team Medic

Work
Experience

History Flight

Team Medic/Team Leader

January 2016-Present

Deployed Billet- Tarawa/Europe

-Standby Trauma Medic while deployed

-Oversaw the health for teams of up to 40 employees and local workers/volunteers

-Maintained health supplies sustaining needs of up to 80 patients

-Financial officer while deployed

-Maintained and organized full laboratories, both stationary and mobile for human remains, ordinance and essential supplies

-oversaw travel, lodging and supplies for employees, local workers and volunteers.

-Assistant researcher on POW/MIA Cold Cases

United States Navy Corpsman

Urinalysis Coordinator

January 2011-October 2012

Naval Station 32nd Street

-Oversaw the integrity of 400 sailors during testing

-Ensured clean and effective test results

-Reported results to senior enlisted leader as part of a morning briefing

Assistant Leading Petty Officer of Headquarters Battalion Aid Station 1st Marine Division

May 2011-January 2012

Camp Pendleton

-Directly responsible for the supervision of 56 corpsmen

-Responsible for devising and implementing disciplinary action of 56 corpsmen

-Accountable for the work ethic, morale, and performance of 56 corpsmen

-Ensured the duties performed by subordinate corpsmen were excellent, thorough, and completed.

-Administrative Petty Officer

-Accountable for safety records and standard operating procedure paperwork

-Responsible for the completion of the written communication between Headquarters Battalion BAS and other commands

-Education Training Petty Officer

-In charge of command's semi annual and annual recommended and mandatory training for each sailor's respective duties.

-Preventive Medicine Representative

-Directly in charge and responsible for the vaccination of all sailors and marines within Headquarters Battalion of 1st Marine Division

-Kept vaccination records, pre and post deployment for all sailors and marines.

-Alerted all sailors and marines about vaccinations that were due in the near future

-Educated the marines and sailors of the importance of vaccination through pamphlets, print offs, and verbally before and after shots.

-Safety Officer

-Directly responsible for educating marines on the importance of safety and operational risk management

-When safety incidents occurred, responsible for filling out and filing the proper paperwork to the head safety officer of 1st marine division and the Bureau of Navy Medicine.

-Held and Hosted educational classes and safety briefs before major holidays and to new motorcycle owners.

-Revised training courses

Assistant Leading Petty Officer of Wounded Warrior Battalion West:

August 2009 - May 2011

-Directly responsible for the health and well being of 3500 marines from San Diego to Alaska and all the way to Japan and Guam.

14787 Caminito Orense Este
San Diego, CA 92129

Phone (760) 975-5445
docjacobs@ymail.com

- Ensured medical providers continued care in an appropriate and adequate manor
- Responsible for obtaining appropriate medical equipment for their healthcare
- Ensured their living conditions were in sync with their medical needs
- Ensured marines attended all appointments and communicated with healthcare providers
- Responsible for daily medical reports to the commanding officer on all 3500 marines and sailors

Marine Combat Training Section Leader

May 2008 - August 2009

- Responsible for 10 junior sailors including administrative tasks to the completion of field work
- Responsible for their education and training
- Responsible for their semi annual and annual naval and job training
- Held weekly meeting with Marine Command to ensure the overall health and well being of the marines in training.
- Supervised field operations
- Ensured effective work ethic and duties performed by junior sailors
- Performed fieldwork and supervision for approximately 950 total hours.

Platoon Corpsman. 3rd Battalion, 7th Marine Regiment, Company I, 3rd Platoon.

August 2005-March 2006

- Directly responsible for the health and well-being of 48 Marines and Corpsman before and during a Combat Deployment to Ar Ramadi, Iraq.
- Directly responsible for the education and training of 6 Combat Life Savers in the Platoon.
- Directly responsible for ensuring all Marines and Corpsman had appropriate medical supplies and training with said supplies.
- Ensured proper medical documentation of any and all incidents.
- Carried out sick call two times per day while in the field or in garrison.
- 175+ Combat Patrols as Platoon Corpsman

14787 Caminito Orense Este
San Diego, CA 92129

Phone (760) 975-5445
docjacobs@ymail.com

Education Associate of Arts Degree in General Education: National University: 2011-2015
San Diego, California

Graduate of Fillmore Senior High School: Fillmore, California.

Certificates and Awards Purple Heart; Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal with Valor; Combat Action Ribbon; Combat Trauma Management; Fleet Marine Force Device; Tommy Lasorda Veteran Service of the Year; VetSports 2013 Athlete of the Year; Recipient of San Diego City Council Proclamation: Doc Jacobs Day;

Volunteer Work Cofounder and West Coast Director of VetSports August 2012-Present
-West coast liaison for major events and operations
-Baseball and Fishing team coordinator
-Event Manager for various adaptive sporting events
Achilles Freedom Team Member
-Key note Speaker and athlete mentor
Semper Fi Fund Team Member
-Key note Speaker and athlete mentor
Guest Speaker
-Navy Corpsman Birthday Ball
-American Airlines
-Disabled Veterans Business Alliance
-Operation Gratitude
-Various Military Commands, Including Marine Corps Sergeant's Course and Marine Corps Corporal's Course

Marathon Runner (2 half marathons; hand cycled 15 complete world marathons).
-To raise awareness for overcoming injuries of wounded warriors