

Resume

Charles L. Thudium

1010 Yank Street
Golden, CO 80401
Tel: (303) 277-9439
Cell: 303-521-5905
Email: geologistx@comcast.net

Summary of Professional Qualifications

- Experience with several engineering firms. Duties have included site monitoring, water sampling, and general surveying work.
- Military Career 1965 – 2003 U.S. Army Intelligence Analyst
- Background includes twenty-five years of science teaching at the college level. Teaching assignments have included all levels of earth science and geology courses taught at the College of DuPage.
- Served as an intelligence analyst at the National Ground Intelligence Center in 2001-2002. Duties included seismic and acoustic collection.
- SCUBA Diver Instructor Open Water Cert # 11360 Technical Diving Institute/Scuba Diving International (Also YMCA and PADI SCUBA Certified).
- Member of Necrosearch International, an organization dedicated to helping law enforcement locate clandestine graves of crime victims.

Most Recent Position

Earth Science Instructor at University Schools, Greeley Co (2006 to 2014)

Security Clearance

Top Secret (SCI) expired)

Education

B.S., Earth Science, Geology, Northeastern Illinois University, Chicago

M.S., Earth Science, Geology, Northeastern Illinois University, Chicago

Employment History

Instructor, Earth Science, University Schools, Greeley CO, 2006 - 2013

Instructor, Geology and Earth Science, College of Dupage, 1975 to December 2001

Instructor, Earth Science and Geology, Naperville District 203, 1975 - June 2002

Analyst, Seismic and acoustic systems, National Ground Intelligence Center,
Charlottesville Virginia, November 2001 to November 2002,

Instructor in geology at Regis University in Denver during summer sessions.

Professional Societies:

American Geophysical Union

National Association of Geoscience Teachers

Awards:

Outstanding Adjunct Faculty Award, College of DuPage, 1995

Related Experience:

College level courses taught include Earth Science 100, Earth Science 101 (Physical Geology), Earth Science 102 (Physical Geography), Earth Science 103 (Historical Geology). I also have worked in environmental site management and landfill monitoring for Eldredge Engineering Associates, Naperville Illinois, geological mapping for Dames and Moore, and general surveying for Woods and Associates, Naperville, Illinois. Seismic and acoustic analyst for U. S. Army at the National Ground Intelligence Center, Charlottesville, Virginia.